Dear Mr. Cheung,

Thank you for your response.

I agree with you that it would be more meaningful if Ziad is proactive & therefore i would like him to join the meeting.

It is fine if we can view & discuss the exam paper with you without taking a copy.

My husband would also like to join us.

Does tomorrow wed 2pm suit you.

If not can we arrange to meet before school at 7am, as i believe you are busy on all days after school.

Mrs. Mahmood,

Thank you for following up on Ziad's report card.

As a reminder, our deal was to have Ziad show you and have signed any poor or failing quizzes/tests since our parent teacher conference. Though tardy at times, and with my constant reminders, Ziad would eventually show me the quizzes/tests with your signature. This explains his D+ progress report in late November. I take it that you have had opportunities to discuss with Ziad his progress back then.

Do understand that Ziad has been continuously invited to schedule a meeting with me for extra help, although without an appointment, he is still welcome to see me. Bottom line is that he has made no effort to come see me to clarify missed questions, etc. Thus, unfortunately, he failed is semester exam which dropped his overall semester grade to a D-.

I am happy to meet with you to discuss how we can better support him, which includes a significant portion of Ziad being pro-active, something I emphasized during our parent teacher meeting. Unfortunately, I cannot give you a copy of the semester exam as we have an agreement amongst all AP Economics teachers that the questions remain in our hands. All quiz/test questions are filed and students know they are welcome to sit in my room and review them again.

The most convenient times to meet due to our rotating schedule is either 1:30 PM this Wednesday or 11:30 AM on Friday. Please let me know if this works, otherwise we'll have to schedule a meeting for the following week.

Best,
Alan Cheung

Dear Mr. Cheung,

We as parents are deeply concerned about Ziads overall grade in economics, this semester. I would therefore like to meet with you when school reopens , to discuss ziads economics exam paper. If possible, i would like to make a copy of the paper & discuss where you think he needs extra attention. Also where & how he has lost marks and how can we support him this quarter.

Please let me know different days & times that you might be available as i will be meeting with other teachers too.

And It would help if i can get to meet atleast two teachers on the same day.

Looking forward to your reply.

Regards,
Mrs.Mahmood
